

Teacher Training for PGR's (Postgraduate Researchers) June Course 2019

Dear Kevin,

I am pleased to confirm that you have successfully completed the 4 week introductory course to Teacher Training for PGR's at NTU.

During this course you have covered the following elements:

- Apply reflective strategies to support development as an academic practitioner
- Identify a range of active and inclusive learning approaches in diverse learning spaces
- Demonstrate a range of feedback approaches to support students' learning
- Explain the pedagogic principles underpinning grade-based assessment
- Identify potential barriers to learning and solutions to address them
- Apply different teaching approaches to foster learner engagement
- Design learning outcomes and plan diverse activities for your sessions

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your engagement and wish you all the best in your future teaching endeavours.

Yours sincerely,

Zena J Rashid
Course Leader
